DEATH RODE IN THIS CAR . . . Newly appointed Campbell police officer, Luis Wilson, stands by the badly smashed up car which James Henry Gleed, 73, 310 Harrison Ave., Campbell, was driving when it collided head-on with a truck on Winchester near Hamilton last Thursday afternoon. Mr. Gleed died Saturday apparently from injuries sustained in the accident. The two-ton truck was driven by Harley Manfull, 40, employed by O'Neill and Ellis lumber company of Campbell. According to the police report, Mr. Gleed had stopped on Hamilton before entering onto Winchester and apparently lost control of his car after making the turn onto Winchester. His car apparently struck a tree in the orchard adjoining Winchester Road and then plunged head-on into the truck which was proceeding north on Winchester Road.—Campbell Press photo.

Acquires Property

Plans for Third High School for District Go into Their Final Stages

Campbell Union High School District has already acquired about 37 acres of the 43 acre site required for the third high school of the district to be located off the San Jose-Los Gatos Road just south of the Sherman Oaks Bowl, district officials have announced.

The site is composed of five different parcels. The 37 acres comprises four of them but acquisition of the final parcel owned by the Mayfair Packing Co., may have to be settled by condemnation proceedings.

Tentative plans for the school have already been drawn and the time-table by the district sets the fall of 1959 as the completion date.

The present thinking of district officials is that the school should be built to accommodate 1500 students but still under discussion is whether all four classes will be enrolled when it opens or whether the plant will be only partially completed to accommodate the lower classes as was the case with Camden High.

Also in the discussion stage is where the students will come from who will attend the new school.

According to district officials a total state allocation of $468,231 is available to buy the land, which is located south of College Park and north of Dick's Shopping Center.

It is bounded on the east by the SP tracks and Del Mar Ave. will be extended south to make the west border. The original owners of the land will retain frontage along the San Jose-Los Gatos Road, district officials said.

Lions to Sponsor White Cane Drive

Members of the Campbell Lions Club and the Lionettes will man "white cane" sale booths here Saturday as part of national "White Cane Days."

Proceeds from the sale of the canes will go to the Santa Clara Valley Recreation for the Blind for construction of a recreation building.

Booths will be set up at Lee Bros. Supermarket, Vince's Food Center and Towne Pride Market Saturday for the drive.

OUT FOR JUDGE . . . Martin S. Walsh, San Jose and Campbell attorney, and long-time Campbell resident, this week announced that he would seek the office of Judge of the Campbell-Los Gatos-Saratoga Judicial District in the 1958 elections. Judge Walsh, who resides at 127 Budd Ave., Campbell, served as Justice of Peace of the old Campbell Township for more than two years. He has been active in Grange work, is a director of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Kiwanis Club and Knights of Columbus. If elected, he said, he plans to devote full time to the duties of the office.

FALSE BOMB ALARM

What turned out to be a false bomb alarm, evacuated Cambrian School at Casey Road and San Jose-Los Gatos Road last Friday at 2:15 p.m. An investigation by both the sheriff's department and county firemen failed to turn up any evidence

Who They Are

A pictorial cross-section of Campbell Business and Professional Women shows Mrs. Eleanor Jacobsen, far left, president of Twin Cities Manufacturing Co. in her wholesale furniture factory on Railway Ave., inspecting the work of John Kelly. In the top center photo, Miss Dorothy Fouch, teacher of the combined second and third grades at Hamilton School, listens to third grade oral reading group.

Next on the right, Mrs. Floyd Munson considers buying a sweater from Mrs. Emily McConnell, co-owner of Rachel's Dress Shop.

Beauty operator Alma Fanning owner of Alma's Beauty Shop, prepares to trim the locks of Mrs. Vivian Faulkner, women's editor of The Campbell Press, while on the far right Mrs. Ellis Litynsky, acting postmaster, displays a sheet of newly printed stamps.

TAX DELINQUENCY RATES

According to County Tax Collector Roy P. Emerson, only $451,241.99 went delinquent on Santa Clara County property owners' tax bills during the 1956-57 fiscal year, a percentage of .943. Last year's delinquency was .93 per cent. Delinquincy in the unincorporated areas was 1.17 per cent and the cities ranged from .13 for Cupertino to 2.71 for Morgan Hill. Campbell was 2.01 per cent.

'Press' Salutes BPW On Their 'Week'

In recognition of "National Business Women's Week" The Campbell Press this week salutes the women of Campbell who work in office, store or factory.

The Press presents a pictorial cross-section of those women engaged in business or professional work as a tribute to the activity of the local Business and Professional Women's Club, headed by Mrs. Edith Morley.

This week, throughout the United States and its territorial possessions, recognition is being given to women in business and the professions. Official proclamations from the President, governors and mayors have designated September 22-28 as "National Business Women's Week".

Using the theme, "Salute to Women Who Work", the Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs is observing the week by bringing women in all levels of business to the attention of the public.

In Campbell, members of the 50-member BPW Club are found in responsible positions of all types including that of postmaster (Mrs. Ellis Litynsky), and city clerk (Mrs. Dorothy Trevethan). They are in industry (Mrs. Eleanor Jacobsen), some are merchants (Mrs. Emily McConnell and Mrs. Ann Levine), others are teachers, secretaries, clerks, beauty operators, in journalism, drug or restaurant business.

The Press is happy to have had a small part in bringing the attention of the public to the active part the women of Campbell take in the daily life of the community.

Pigskin Pickins'

Two members of the peerless pigskin panel of The Press, last week only missed one game out of 10. Coincidentally these top honors go to Sam Reed, Campbell High principal, and Benny Lujan, student body president.

The two representatives of of Campbell High swear that there was no collusion despite the fact that both had the same pickins' last week. Lo and behold they picked 'em the same way this week, too.

Mrs. Elaine Carey, the only woman member, did o.k. also, we will have you know. She only missed two. Pete Lico, of Towne Pride, and our own Marvin Moore, missed four while Bill Means missed three.

NOT SERIOUS HERE

Absenteeism showed no appreciable increase in the local schools this week, local school officials reported, in the face of the reports that the Asiatic flu had hit other districts in the state.

On The Line in Campbell

Applications are now being taken for the position of patrolman on the Campbell Police Department and an examination will be given in the near future for a new eligibility list, it was reported this week. Applications may be obtained at either the City Clerk's office or the Police Department at the City Hall.

Golden Rule Department Store to Open on Tuesday Under New Owners

Two Campbell couples announced this week that they had purchased Rhea's Golden Rule, 349 E. Campbell, the community's lone department store for more than 20 years, from Mrs. Zelia Rhea and would take over the operation next Tuesday, October 1, under the name of Golden Rule Department Store.

The purchasers, Thelma and Howard Redmond, 40 S. Cypress Ave., and Laura and Joe Anello, 645 W. Parr Ave., have ordered new merchandise for the store, which is undergoing a repainting and redecorating job this week but will be stocked with its new inventory when it opens again next week.

The new owners are both known in the community, having taken part in various community activities during the past years. The Redmonds have lived in Campbell for seven years and have two children, Brent, 3½, and Velda, 5½. Redmond, a graduate of Cal Poly and who served in the Air Force during World War II, is a design engineer at Westinghouse in Sunnyvale. He is also a past president of the Campbell Democratic Club.

Mrs. Redmond will manage the store with the assistance of Mrs. Anello. The husbands do not plan to take an active part in the operation of the department store.

The Anellos have lived in Campbell since 1947, coming here shortly after his release from the Army in World War II. Anello is advertising manager of The Campbell Press where he has been employed for almost 10 years.

They have two children, Michael, 10, and Laurie, 3. Anello has served as president of St. Lucy's Dads Club and of the Italian-American Club.

Time Changes This Sunday

Campbell residents and all Californians will be getting an extra hour's sleep this Sunday morning when the state sets its clock back to Standard Time.

Daylight Saving Time will officially end Sunday at 2 a. m. with Saturday night's "late show" becoming not so late this week.

Monday morning commuters will surely run into a few snags as train and bus schedules change, but the extra hour of rest will probably carry them through the day.

Gas War Comes Into Campbell

Campbell motorists were the beneficiaries this week as the gas war slopped over into the Campbell area.

Every one of the 20 service stations on the local front apparently recognized that the war was on but for the most part the stations in the center of town were holding the line on prices.

On the fringes of town however, the battle was getting pretty rough.

A hasty check of the situation by The Press (Wednesday morning) revealed that the lowest price for a regular major grade was 26.3 cents. Ken Roberts Union Station (San Jose-Los Gatos Road and Campbell) posted this price but added a 25 cent service charge for windshield washing. Roberts, in recognition of the stand-fast policy of other Campbell stations only posted his cut-rate sign on the SJ-LG Road.

Service station members of the Campbell Stamp Association banded together and instead of offering cut-rate gasoline offered double stamps to their customers.

The story was different on the fringes where the local battle actually started because they were the first affected by the price-cutting in other areas that has been going on.

Most service station operators were keeping a wary eye on their competitors across the street which seemed to be the only gauge for measuring how far to drop prices or how long the battle would continue.

Local Couple Draw 'Three-of-a-Kind'

Donald R. Peckham is probably three times as proud as most new fathers.

But he can afford to be.

Peckham, a physical education instructor at Campbell Grammar School became a father three times last Thursday. His wife, Ruth, gave birth to two boys and a girl Thursday morning at San Jose Hospital.

A light agenda faces the Council, although they may bring back a number of ideas from the convention that will be presented.

The Council is expected to act on the letter of resignation of Alfred M. (Doc) Cook, Sr., as Deputy Civil Defense Director and give second reading to the new House Moving Ordinance. It is also expected that a lumber ordinance as requested by W. L. (Bud) Morser, building inspector, will come up for consideration.

'CM' Parleys Hunt Common Ground

Both sides in the current "Controlled Manufacturing" zoning hassle voiced subdued optimism this week over the results of the first "compromise" conference held by the two groups last Friday.

Another meeting of the groups has been tentatively scheduled in the immediate future at which time points brought up Friday will be more thoroughly discussed.

Representing the Planning Commission at the confab were Commissioners Sam O'Brien, Homer Hyde, Jim Tomlinson and Richard Salice with Nestor Barrett, planning consultant, and Joe Bonacina, city attorney, as advisors.

John M. Burnett, San Jose attorney was the principal spokesman for the land-owners committee that is opposing the adoption and application of "CM" to their properties in the Campbell industrial park.

Lynn Beatty, chairman of this group, was represented at the conference by his son, Douglas.

Teacher Tells Sorority About Summer Tour

Gamma Omega Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, an international honorary educational society, heard a member's account of her 10,600 mile summer tour when it met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Mildred Sillstrop in Saratoga.

Miss Barbara Mackay, secretary of the society and seventh grade teacher in Campbell, was the speaker. She illustrated her talk with slides of the seven-week trip she made with companions this summer.

Miss Mackay's talk described highlights of their trip through the Southwest to Carlsbad Caverns, New Orleans, the historic areas of Mississippi, and Florida. The travelers went up the coast to the Carolinas and Georgia and in Arlington, Virginia, Miss Mackay visited Col. and Mrs. F. N. Stahl, formerly of Saratoga. From there the group went on to New York, through New England, and on to Quebec and Ontario. The trip home was by way of Yellowstone, Grand Tetons and Sun Valley.

The slides will be used in classroom work.

New Broadway Hit Opens at Alcazar In S.F October 7

Mail orders are now being received at the Alcazar Theatre for the forthcoming production of the current Broadway hit, "The Tunnel of Love", which is to open a brief engagement at the Alcazar Theatre in San Francisco beginning Monday evening October 7.

Heading the cast of players appearing in this National touring company are Tommy Noonan and William Bishop, two of the most popular young stars of the amusement field. Other featured players include Nancy Hadley, Hollis Irving, Narda Onyx and Elsa Walden.

"The Tunnel of Love" is by Joseph Fields, author of that record-breaking comedy hit "Anniversary Waltz", "My Sister Eileen", "Junior Miss", and many other stage successes; and Peter De Vries, author of the best selling novel, "The Tunnel of Love". Harry Ellerbe is the director.

The play deals antically with a Westport couple who struggle valiantly and hilariously to adopt a baby. Along the way the authors give the Madison Avenue hucksters (who can't live on $20,000.00 a year) and the literary set, turned bohemians in Connecticut, a rough going over. The play is strictly for laughs and was described by one of New York's leading critics as "Howlarious".

Performances of "The Tunnel of Love" will be given each evening, except Sunday, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. This is a Theatre Giuld-American Society Subscription Play.

Goodwill Needs Women to Dress Renovated Dolls

Like to dress dolls? Goodwill Industries is looking for 1500 women to dress "rehabilitated" dolls for their annual Doll Project. The dolls are all ready to go and should be picked up at Goodwill headquarters, 46 Race Street, San Jose, before October 1.

Last year the dolls were dressed by hundreds of women who enjoyed selecting materials and designing tiny outfits of clothing. Awards were made in over twenty classifications.

Climax of this annual event is the Doll Tea, to be held this year at Goodwill headquarters. Following the tea, the dolls will go on display and sale at Goodwill stores and Lion's Furniture Company.

All proceeds from the sale go directly for vocational training and rehabilitation of 175 handicapped persons employed by Goodwill Industries.

Women interested in dressing dolls are requested to pick them up as soon as possible.

It has been estimated that 45 out of every 100 persons have settled in the San Francisco Bay Region since 1940.

City of Campbell Get Largest Sale Tax Check

Income for the City of Campbell from the sales tax revenue is running considerably ahead of estimates for the current fiscal year, City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan reported this week upon the receipt of the largest check to date from the State Controller's office.

The check was for $15,925.75 representing the bulk of the second quarter's distribution for a total of $19,692 that has been received by the City since the start of the new fiscal year on July 1.

The budget estimate for the year is $60,000 which will be exceeded if the same proportion continues in subsequent quarters. The City Clerk said that the current check was even larger than the receipts for the quarter which represented the Christmas business.

The clerk reported also that since the sales tax was put into effect in October, 1956, the City has received $56,654.78 to date.

Campbell stands in ninth place in 1957 sales tax income for the 15 incorporated cities of the county. Top place is held by San Jose with $707,384 followed by Palo Alto with $213,642, Mountain View, $114,360, Santa Clara, $94,177 and Sunnyvale, $62,744.

Sales tax income for the other cities: Los Gatos, $36,739; Los Altos, $36,406; Gilroy, $26,468; Milpitas, $11,270; Morgan Hill, $7,667; Saratoga, $6,089; Cupertino, $5,262; Alviso, $1,086; and Los Altos Hills, $769.

The county's total to date this fiscal year is $367,772.

CAMP FIRE NEWS

The Happy Friends Blue Bird Group, under the leadership of Mrs. Hugh Whistler and Mrs. Wayne Lantz, recently celebrated their second year together by visiting the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company in San Jose.

The girls were taken on an especially guided tour of all units and given explanations on the workings of some of their most interesting features. Especially facinating to the girls were the flashing lights on the switch boards and the long rows of telephone operators.

At their next meeting at the Hugh Whistler home at 271 Budd Ave., the girls used toy telephones and dramatized the proper and improper use of the telephone.

The Happy Friends who made the excursion to the phone company were Sharon Brannon, Thelma Chapman, Sharon Whistler, Letitia Lantz, Sherry Harris, Chris Harrison, Linda Payne and Donna Putnam.

—o—

The Singing Blue Birds, a second grade group from Quito School held their first meeting of the year at the home of their leader, Mrs. Robert Magnuson, on Wednesday, September 18. A trip to the Quito Fire Station followed, the girls accompanied by their leader and assistant leader, Mrs. Douglas Tennison.

The Singing Blue Birds attended Campbell Day Camp en masse this summer after being organized in the first grade at the end of the school year and so are a strong Blue Bird Group.

Members are Kathie Christensen, Sandra Ferney, Marylin Jessup, Johey Magnuson, Wendy Moneries, Ava Miedla, Jo Rainie, Devvie Tennison, Debbie Testa, and Carol Welber.

—o—

The Wa-Cha-Zu-Ki Camp Fire Group has just donated $5.00 out of their treasury to the Camp Development Fund. Ten of the girls attended Camp Wastahi last summer and had so much fun they decided to donate to the future of the camp. They were in the same Kiosk and consider the experience worth investing in. This makes a total of $25.00 the group has given to Camp Fire.

These girls are in the seventh grade and are already working on their Torchbearer ranks under the leadership of Mrs. Bea Jauncey.

The reason Paula Transeth didn't attend Camp Wastahi with her group is that she is in Japan. Other members of the group are Donna Cardona, Ginger O'Dell, Judy Keller, Marcia Manson, Shirley Shanks, Virginia Anderson, Ann Alioto, Carrie McNulty, and Linda Cantenbein.

—o—

Campbell District Leaders' meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ray Coe, 3240 Williams Road, San Jose, October 3, at 10 a.m. All new Blue Bird and Camp Fire leaders are urged to attend. Veteran leaders will be happy to help them in any way they can. Child care will be provided.

Pictures taken at Campbell Day Camp this past summer will be on display and arrangements can be made to get copies

Mid-Afternoon Ceremony Unites Jack Youngren and Joan Farley

In a mid-afternoon ceremony at the Congregational Church August 24, Joan Dianne Farley became the bride of Jack Fred Youngren. The Rev. Corwin Olds officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest K. Farley, 224 E. Rincon Ave. and sister of Dennis and Margaret Farley. She is a 1957 graduate of Campbell High School and a member of Fidelis Theta Rho.

Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller, 52 N. First Street, Campbell, and brother of Ellen Youngren. He attended San Jose Tech and at the present time is employed by the H. G. Wanderer Company of Sunnyvale as electrician.

When escorted to the altar by her father, Joan wore a bouffant-skirted, waltz length gown of white brocaded taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice and tiny cap sleeves and accented with an ice blue cummerbund. A circular headband secured her shoulder-length veil. For "something borrowed," she carried a white Bible marked with white orchids and satin ribbon belonging to Mrs. Fred Carlson, a gift to Mrs. Carlson's mother from her grandfather and carried at her own wedding.

Maid of honor and only attendant of the bride was her cousin, Barbara Getz of Pacific Grove. She wore an orchid brocaded taffeta with matching cummerbund styled identically to the bride's gown and carried an arm bouquet of orchid-edged white carnations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Farley selected a blue print nylon dress with navy accessories and a pink orchid corsage.

Mrs. Miller, mother of the groom, wore a cream lace sheath with white accessories and a white orchid corsage

Roy B. Nelson performed the duties of best man; Paul Carney, cousin of the groom, and Bill Dalke, cousin of the bride, served as ushers.

Organist was Mrs. Arthur Gillespie who played "Because", "Beloved", and "Indian Love Call".

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fireside room of the church where the young couple received felicitations from fifty guests and cut their three-tiered cake. →

After the reception, newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Jack Youngren left on a honeymoon trip to Southern California. For her going-away outfit, the bride donned a short-sleeved brown print dress with fitted bodice and knife-pleated skirt, with white accessories and pinned on a corsage of orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Youngren are now making their home at 2080 Marlboro Ave., San Jose.

NEWLYWED MR. AND MRS. JACK YOUNGREN . . . are shown before the altar of the Congregational Church immediately following their 2 p.m. wedding ceremony on Saturday, August 24. The bride is the former Joan Dianne Farley. The young couple are now making their home in San Jose.

This Cake Was a Hit at the Fair

Here is Mrs. Adele Charlson's recipe for the German Jelly Cake which made such a big hit at the County Fair when served by Campbell High Future Homemakers.

1½ cups shortening
1½ cups sugar
4 eggs
1 teas. salt
1 teas. cloves
1 teas. nutmeg
¾ teas. soda
½ cup ground chocolate
juice of 1 lemon
1 pint plum preserves.

Cream shortening and sugar; add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Sift together flour, salt, cloves, nutmeg, soda, and chocolate and add to the mixture. Add juice of lemon.

Spread ¾ of batter in a 9" x 13" pan. Over the top spread plum preserves. Spoon the remaining one-fourth batter into a cookie press or pastry bag and use to make criss-cross cake strips over top of jam.

Bake 45 minutes to one hour at 350 degrees.

Campbell High FHA Does Well At County Fair

Campbell High School's Future Homemakers of America came back from the County Fair again this year loaded with ribbons and cash awards. The girls received a total of 29 ribbons for their entries in clothing, baked goods, preserved food and needlework divisions. Mrs. Adele Charlson is the Homemaking teacher and advisor for the group.

Of the eight FHA Chapters in the County, six cooperated in setting up a model kitchen in the Education tent and were responsible for its operation specific hours of each day. Each chapter took turns demonstrating and passing out samples of its freshly baked cookies or cake.

German Jelly Cake with its plum preserves showing through a lattice work of cake proved to be one of the biggest hits with the public when served by the Campbell girls. The recipe came from the personal file of Mrs. Charlson who obtained it from a friend many years ago.

Campbell girls entering the various homemaking categories at the Fair and their prizes are:

Sylvia Barkman, three 1sts and a 2nd in clothing; Jeannette Bonney, one 2nd and a 3rd in clothing, two 2nds and a 3rd in preserved food. Darlene Testa, two 1sts in preserved foods and two 1sts in baked goods.

GOOD PLUMBING SERVICE

COSTS LESS THAN YOU THINK!

"on the busiest night...

...a broken water line!"

New Year's Eve is just about the busiest time of the year for a bar and grill, and a broken water line can create a real emergency.

That was the situation facing Mr. Terry Genesy of the "Your Host" restaurant in San Jose last New Year's Eve, but thanks to the 'round the clock emergency service of his plumbing contractor, the repair was made in little more than an hour and business continued as usual.

To quote Mr. Genesy, "Our plumbing contractor protects the lifeline of my business. Compared to all the service we get, our plumbing maintenance costs are low."

Good plumbing service costs less than you think. Whenever you buy, repair, install or remodel, call a licensed plumbing contractor.

Bees Kickoff Grid Season Today

The Campbell High Bees will be taking to the air when they open their SCVAL season at James Lick High this afternoon at 3:30 p.m.

The Bees will open up their strong passing game today in the opener of what Coach Hal Raley calls a "tossup season" where the strengths of the league's 10 teams is "anybody's guess" until the first few games are played.

The Bees will field a strong starting backfield with letterman quarterback Benny Lujan and two lettermen halfbacks, Mark Bahl and Ronnie Wilson. Wilson will act as game captain for the opener. Either veteran Greg Yamamoto or Robert Perry will round out the backfield at full.

Lujan, a senior, is expected to be doing much of the passing with two veteran ends, Harry Tomisako and Bobby Straight on the receiving end of his tosses.

Freshman quarter Craig Norton, who has been showing good passing form in practice, may also take a turn at directing the Bee offense which this year will run the split T "belly" series.

The Bee starting line will include letterman center Danny Schwartz, guards James Togota, a letterman, and Ivasaki Nozomu, and tackles Bob Stewart, Victor Nishicima and Richard Johanson.

Pop Warner Team Plays Here Sunday

Campbell High School's football field will be the home base of the Billy Wilson Hornets, Santa Clara County's entry in the Northern California Pop Warner Football Conference, Vern Holland, end coach of the Hornets reported this week.

The Hornets will play their first home game on the Campbell field this Sunday, September 29, at 1:30 p.m. when they tangle with the Sebastopol eleven.

Authorization for the use of the local field was given on Tuesday.

The conference is made up of 11 teams extending from San Jose to Petaluma and the Hornets have played and won three games thus far this season. Mill Valley was defeated 30 to 6, Livermore 13 to 0 and San Carlos (in a preliminary event to the Stanford-San Jose State game) 20 to 0. Three more home games are scheduled and four away from home.

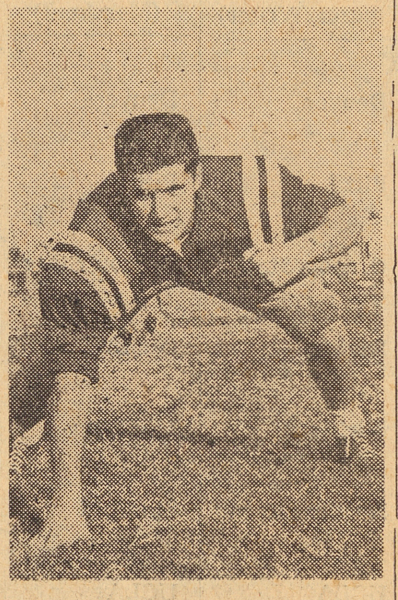
The county team under the official name of Billy Wilson Athletic Club has received financial and other help from Billy Wilson, great 49'er end and former star on the Campbell High and San Jose State teams.

Darien Bennett is the head coach of the Hornets and Ted Bohn, of Campbell, is the line coach. The members of the Pop Warner teams are made up of boys in the 13-14 age group, play under regular football rules and use regulation equipment.

Bucs To Meet Lick in Opener

Campbell High's Buccaneers open their '57 grid campaign tomorrow at 3 p.m. when they run head on into the top-rated Comets of James Lick High on the Comets' field.

Buc Coach Jim Muir is faced with the unhappy prospect of putting his fairly young team against what could be the strongest team in the SCVAL.



VERNE WALTON
. . . Co-Captain

With last year's entire first string lost through graduation, and only five lettermen returning this year, the Bucs lack both depth and experience.

"We haven't progressed as rapidly as I had hoped," Muir said this week, "and I wish we were meeting Lick later in the season, but we hope to give them a good ball game."

Anticipatinng a strong Comet aerial game, Muir has been running his squad through heavy pass defense drills this week.

The Comets, defending SCVAL co-champions, will field a strong passing team bolstered by seven returning veterans from last year's first string. Comet quarterback Chon Gallegos, last year's "outstanding SCVAL back", will spark Lick's dangerous passing attack.

KEN BURAN
. . . Co-Captain

Campbell will field one of the lightest teams in Buc history, with both the starting line and backfield averaging 170 pounds. Running out of a tight "T" formation, the Bucs will count heavily on their ground game to gain against the Comets.

In the backfield, returning lettermen Dave Alvarez and Ken Buran will be doing plenty of ball carrying. Alvarez, a sprinter, averaged seven yards per carry last year and will start at left half.

Buran, a 195-pounder, will get the starting nod at full and will act as co-captain for the game with tackle Verne Walton.

Rounding out the Buc backfield will be right half Frank Smith, a third string fullback last year, and quarterback Jim Cole, who came up from the Bees last year in time to get some varsity experience.

Walton lettered two years ago and is now returning to school while Farley was a first string defensive center last year.

Bucs Draw Bye In SCVAL Slate

One open date and the Thanksgiving traditional with Los Gatos highlight this year's Buc football schedule as released by the SCVAL office in the County Schools Department. The Friday scheduled by the League for the Los Gatos contest, November 1, will be changed by consent of both schools, and the resulting post-season Thanksgiving Day game at Los Gatos will leave that date open.

With an expanded ten-team league, the only open day in which to schedule SPAL competition will be this Nov. 1 date.

cost of living
average price of a unit of P Gand E gas and electricity
1936

Business statistics professor finds

"Gas and Electricity cost less than in 1936!"

Professor William Spurr, of the Stanford Graduate School of Business, has made a study of the cost of living in California. His findings show that while the over-all cost of living has doubled since 1936, the average cost of a unit of P. G. and E. gas and electricity is down below 1936 levels.

Your increased usage has made mass production economies possible. Your total bill may be more because you're using more appliances, but the average prices you pay are far less.

These facts point out an important advantage to living in California. With gas and electricity so cheap, you can afford to live better . . . to let gas and electricity do more of your housework and bring you more of life's pleasures.

Live better—gas and electricity are cheap in California

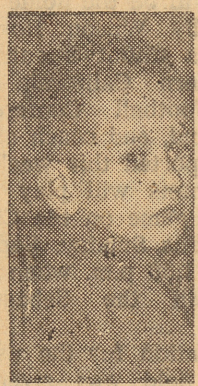
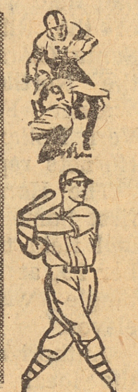
LOW DOWN ON SPORTS





By Marvin Moore

Williams Top Man

Ted Williams hit a grand slam homer in the 2nd inning to help a six run Boston splurge that beat the Yankees 8-3. This lifts 39 year old Williams batting mark to .380—13 points margin over Mickey Mantle's .367.

Seivers Hits 41

Roy Seivers of the Washington Senators hit his 40th and 41st Home runs of the year, one a grand slammer as the Senators beat the Baltimore Orioles 8-1.

Bums for L. A.

It looks like Los Angeles has the Brooklyn Dodgers move in the Bag. The official announcement on the move of the franchise is on September 29 (final day of the season) but rumor has it--it's L. A. Only one minor obstacle stands in the way and this is supposed to be settled this week.

The San Francisco 49'ers played a beautiful defensive game to beat the Philadelphia Eagles 17-14. John Brodie, Stanford's ex-star hurled a Touchdown pass.

The Stanford Indians showing the power of their line beat the San Jose Spartans 46-7.

California—S.M.U.

The Southern Methodist Mustangs took California 13-6 in their first game with Pete Elliot as coach. There were many fumbles and errors on Cal's part but I think these will be overcome.

Graves Takes Main

Danny Graves of San Jose took the lead on the 12th lap and held it all the way to score a half lap victory over Dee Hileman in a 40 lap main Saturday night.

It was an exciting night as all drivers fought hard in the C, semi main and main event as double points were given in these races.

SJS Plays Denver; Seeks First Win

If last Saturday's showing against Stanford is any indication of San Jose State's running strength this season, the Spartans will either have to greatly improve their ground game or do plenty of passing when they meet Denver tomorrow night.

The Spartans netted only one yard rushing in the first half of last weeks' 46-7 loss to the Indians and made their only score on a 25-yard pass play.

Let's Look Again at the Picture

The California League of Cities held its annual convention in San Francisco this week and Campbell city officials were among the representatives from cities in every section of the state who attended the confab.

We hope that out of this convention will come an answer to a perplexing problem that continually bothers us. We are sure it is of equal concern to city officials.

Our problem is where the line of county services stops and city services begin.

We all know that whether one lives in a city or in county territory the basic general county tax rate is the same. Yet in many instances, although the city dweller pays the county taxes, county services stop at the city limits or are only extended into the city on a fee basis or by mutual agreement of sorts.

We know that this problem is more complex than it sounds at first.

However, we are unalterably opposed to double taxation in any shape or form whether it is on the county basis or by the Federal government.

We note, for example, that each year the Santa Clara County sheriff's department gets bigger and bigger and the county territory it patrols gets smaller and smaller as new cities are incorporated.

We can cite other examples of what we mean.

We realize, of course, that there is a conflict of interests and that cities have taken over services on their own accord even if these services are rendered to county territory dwellers from funds raised by general taxes paid alike by both city and county residents.

We feel very strongly that the entire city-county picture can stand another close scrutiny. At least there is one common denominator on which to start . . . TAXES.

Onward with the Face-Lift Operation

Two pictures on the front page of this issue graphically depict a situation that is soon to be rectified in the downtown business district of Campbell as "Operation Face-Lift" continues on its progressive way.

One of the photos shows the rear of Jimmy's Shoe Shop. The other is of a front view with Tony DeMaria, son of the owner of the building, standing beneath the shoe repair sign.

The Campbell Planning Commission has approved the plans for a new building that is to be constructed on the site. The old building is to be razed and will be replaced by a modern structure that will harmonize with the newly remodeled store buildings adjoining it.

We are certain that there will be few regrets expressed over the fact that the old wooden building which has for so long housed the shoe repair shop is soon to go.

Perhaps there is some sentimental attachment for these old wooden structures that once predominated the business section of Campbell, but any possible sentiment is outweighed in our opinion by the advantages to be gained through the construction of modern and attractive store buildings.

We are the last ones to advocate the tossing aside of traditions, for we feel that tradition has a major part to play in any community's life. On the other hand we know that nothing can be gained by holding on to something that acts as a deterring factor for the improvement or benefit of the community as a whole.

We realize that the price we often pay for progress sometimes leaves a bad taste in one's mouth. Yet it is important to understand that under the present economic conditions of the Santa Clara Valley and our own community particularly that it is impossible to stand still.

Those who argue that the status quo should remain unchanged in the face of the fast-changing picture of this area, we feel, are whistling in the dark.

Unless steps are taken to keep up with the tempo, the inevitable result will be withering on the vine.

Campbell's geographical location is an enviable one. It is more or less the hub of the bustling and amazing activity that has become the wonder of the so-called economic experts. Yet the realization of what is happening around us has been slow to dawn on many who live and work here.

Great strides have been made locally in recent months in preparing for the inevitable. But there is much more to do, if the town is to face the changes that are bound to come in our community whether we like it or not.

Thus we take pleasure in saluting the latest move to give the much-needed face-lift to one particular business block in Campbell.

We sincerely hope the good work continues in town.

There are a number of other ancient jobs that could also stand improving.

OUT on the LIMB
with George Vierhus

Maybe by the time you read this both Pat Brown and Senator Bill Knowland will have quit playing hard to get and have announced the inevitable that they choose to run for governor.

Both of the gents, as of this writing, have done everything but say the exact words. Apparently they are both trying to get the most mileage from their publicity dollars and are stretching to the utmost.

They both have probably been advised to spring (we use the term loosely) at the opportune moment.

Apparently that precise moment has yet to arrive (at least at this writing).

We can't say that we are completely in favor of this coyness on the part of the two would-be candidates. But then again we aren't their advisors and both gentlemen have been around politics long enough to know the score better than we do.

—o—

The Democrats seem to think next year will be their year. They figure that the Knowland-Knight primary batle in June will wage so rough that the Republicans will have little time to much else but lick their wounds when the November election comes around.

Thus the Democrats will sweep in.

This may be good reasoning but Bill Knowland is going to be a tough one to beat (We are assuming he bumps Goodie off in the primaries). Brown is also a top-notch campaigner and the best man the Dems have.

So the November election (1958) should be a lulu.

We are going on the assumption, of course, that both Knowland and Brown will announce themselves. But soon.

—o—

If Knowland isn't running for governor, he certainly has been running someplace. That's for sure.

We glanced at his itinerary for the month and it made us weary just looking at it.

We note that in the entire month's schedule he only allowed five breathing spells, speaking at least twice every day and sometimes three or four times in his travel from one end of the state to the other.

It looks pretty strenuous to us. We hope the Senator finishes his tour without a mishap. It looks as if Pat will have to put on his running shoes pretty soon just to catch up.

—o—

It looks also that Congressman Clair Engle of Red Bluff will be in the race for the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senator. Engle's office has also released a month's itinerary which although not as extensive as Knowland's, it certainly will keep the congressman hopping.

Actually State Controller Robert C. Kirkwood is the only one who has officially announced for U. S. Senator and his office has been busy sending out releases of one sort or another.

We mentioned once before in this column that Kirkwood seems a wee bit hazy in differentiating in his news releases between news of his present office (state controller) and purely and simply Senator campaign fodder.

—o—

His latest release starts out in this fashion: "California Republicans will have to keep their eyes on the ball and not allow themselves to be distracted by the current razzle-dazzle in the political backfield, Robert C. Kirkwood, State Controller, said tonight."

The release pertained to Kirkwood's address before the Saratoga Young Republicans.

We don't mind getting these releases (for ye gods, we get plenty) and we don't mind even reading 'em when we have to.

Our sole objection is that the releases came in the same kind of envelope as all other news from the office comes in and the envelope was marked official business from the state controller's office.

We don't think that's being quite fair to us, having those campaign releases sneak up on us like that.

—o—

As we all know keeping the boundaries straight between what is county territory or what is the City of San Jose of other cities presents a difficult problem.

For example, many times matters that come before the County Planning Commission have a direct bearing on the cities and to a certain extent vice versa.

The Campbell Planning Commission meets twice a month (on Tuesdays) and the County Planning Commission (on Wednesdays) does likewise. Recently the local planners in a courteous letter to their county counterparts asked, if it was possible to learn about matters that have some bearing on Campbell before their Tuesday meeting so they would have time to study them a little be for recommending action. The Campbell Planners felt that it was rushing things a bit to try to get word to the County Planners on something they had only learned about for the first time the night before.

We thought the request was quite reasonable.

But apparently the county people didn't. They haughtily informed the local planners that they would have to take their chances and get their information from the agenda just as others do. No special handling, if you please, even if the case was important to the future of Campbell.

We couldn't help thinking when we heard of this somewhat high and mighty attitude on the part of the County Planning Commission that the people in charge of drawing up their agenda instead of being quite so smug should pay a little more attention to the heading of this same agenda.

The heading has annonuced for some time that the County Planning Commission meets "bimonthly".

Where we went to school bimonthly meant every two months.

We suggest they mean "semimonthly".

But we won't tell 'em.

Over the Years

By John D. Blaine

Last week this column had a story about a present cycling craze among children. This week the subject will be an old cycling craze among adults.

My source material for this old craze is a history of cycling published in 1945 by the well-known Schwinn Company, bicycle builders, a Souvenir book of Santa Clara county published in 1895, and my own observation.

The peak of this craze was in 1895, and I was there, riding a bike of my own and 21 years old. A little arithmetic shows that I write, therefore, as an octogenarian—still riding a bike.

The Schwinn book mentions, and I also well remember, that the middle 1890's was a time of financial depression. Yet enough adults paid from $100 to $150 for bicycles to make cycling a craze. I paid $145 for a bike myself on wages of only 15c an hour.

Relative to prevailing wages a bike cost as much then as a good used car does now. Plainly, then, the bicycle craze was a very real one.

The craze included much interest in racing. Says the Schwinn book: "In the 90's cycle racing was the sport sensation of the world. Top racing men were the heroes of the day." The Schwinn book has pictures of many racing stars. Included is famed Johnny Johnson, who rode an exhibition mile in 1:40 2/5, the fastest such mile to the time. Charles Murphy startled the world by riding a mile behind a special R. R. train in 57 and 4/5 seconds.

This county produced its own group of racing stars, some of whom I personally knew and most of whom I saw race.

To mind come the three Downing brothers, the two Delmas brothers, the two Osen brothers, Wilbur Edwards and Otto Zeigler. These two last were great rivals and very sensational, perhaps the first racers in these parts to discover the art of following pace to reduce wind resistance.

Not very long ago Joe Delmas dropped in to see me. I told him about a cyclist I knew who said that a friend and he had recently made the round trip from San Jose to Carmel, about 150 miles, in one day.

Joe smiled. He said that back in the 90's he had paced Oscar Osen in the first leg of a record making run to San Diego. That first day they pushed their pedals 250 miles.

As for the general craze in this county, the Souvenir book says that in 1895 San Jose had 28 agencies and eight cycle clubs. There were the Garden City Wheelmen, the San Jose Road Club, the Y. M. C. A. Club, the Elite Cyclers, the Observatory Cycling Club, the Typographical Wheelmen, the Columbus Cycling Club, and the Ladies Cycling Club.

In the county were the Campbell Cycling Club, the Mayfield Wheelmen, the Clover Leaf Wheelmen, the Tribune Cyclers of Gilroy, the Saratoga Clover Leaf Club, the Franklin Road Club, and the Mountain View Cyclers.

Says the Souvenir book you could easily skim over the roads on a bike at 10 miles an hour. You could spin from San Jose to Los Gatos in one hour, to Gilroy in three hours. You could make it to San Francisco in from four hours and a half to six hours, according to your pedaling ambition.

Athletic young people rode around the circuit from San Jose to Oakland and back by way of San Francisco, a full run of 100 miles or so. Even some young women made this "century run" repeatedly.

In the long evenings the paved streets of San Jose were thronged with cycling social elite. Cycling was the very peak of social style.

Suddenly this cycling boom burst. Says the Schwinn book, "In the later 90's cycling lost its popularity overnight." Most factories closed. Then after 1900 came the rise of the motor car, especially of Model T. Bicycles were left to children and to business deliveries.

The light well-cared-for machines of the 90's disappeared. Their places were taken by sturdy machines with heavy frames and balloon tires, strong enough to stand abuse by children and heavy loads.

But again we see a change. The influence of foreign makes crept in. Children have discovered light bikes that have gear shifts. With these children heavy bikes are no longer in style. Now we are gripped by the juvenile cycling craze that was the subject of this colunm last week.

Next week I'll tell how I dropped a bomb in this community by returning to the bike myself.

ON CAPTIOL HILL

As a Member of Congress my main concern is writing laws which govern this Nation. But sometimes a study of foreign legislation helps me in my work. Recently I read a summary of England's Agriculture Act of 1947.

This complex law of 118 pages gives certain powers to the Minister for Agriculture, Great Britain's counterpart of Ezra Taft Benson. Among these powers is authority over all agricultural land "which in the opinion of the Minister ought to be brought into use for agriculture". The Minister is given the power of "direction and dispossssession" of farm owners and his hand is backed by the right to imprison or fine those who violate his orders. The Minister of Agriculture is further empowered "in the name of efficiency" to order the "amalgamation" of two or three smaller farms. He can do this by compulsory purchase orders and disregard any objection to the order if it is based on the ground that the purchase is unnecessary.

If the Minister for Agriculture finds that a landowner is not farming "in accordance with the rules of good husbandry", he can place him under supervision. Furthermore, the supervision order is advertised by public recording. Following the supervision order the Minister for Agriculture is empowered to give the farmer "such directions as the Minister is satisfied are required". If the farmer fails to comply, the Minister can have the work done and the reasonable cost of that work is recoverable from the farmer.

If after a reasonable period of "supervision" the Minister is not satisfied that the management of the land has improved to his satisfaction he is then empowered by the 1947 Act to purchase the land compulsorily.

An American farmer, accustomed to complete freedom of operation, would find it hard to believe that this power has ever been used. But it has! Today the Ministry of Agricaulture holds about 230,000 acres. Since World War II over 2000 farmers have been placed under "supervision" and 376 have been evicted.

Though we haven't gone as far in the U.S.A., a farmer can only plant as many acres of wheat as the Secretary of Agriculture will allow. If a farmer is allowed 20 acres of wheat and plants 25 and feeds the extra five acres to his own turkeys or pigs, he is heavily fined, not by the courts but by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Question: Is this the beginning of the end?

FACTS ABOUT FIRE PROTECTION

PROVIDED BY FIRE CHIEFS
A. J. GILBERT, San Jose • G. N. RENN, Saratoga • R. B. WALL, Los Gatos
HENRY C. LINGUA, Central Fire District • GODFREY ZIMERMAN, Burbank

FALL CLEANUP, with its burning of dried leaves and accumulated yard refuse, need not constitute a fire hazard if you exercise sensible precautions. But first get a fire permit.

Home trash burning should always be done in an incinerator of approved type. Be sure it has a cover or a spark arrestor, with no bigger than a quarter inch mesh.

Follow these rules and avoid trouble:

1. Obtain a fire permit and information on burning regulations from your nearest fire station.
2. Never burn on a windy day. Try to pick a damp day, preferably right after a rain.
3. See that your trash burner is not near a fence or a building.
4. Do not leave a burning incinerator unattended. Be sure that an adult always is present if there are children around.
5. Fire is fascinating to youngsters. Make them keep a safe distance away.
6. Keep the garden hose ready and handy.
7. After putting out the fire, don't leave until the ashes cool off enough to test with your hands.

In the interest of good public relations, avoid burning rubbish when your neighbor's wash is on the line. Above all, don't ever burn garbage or anything that gives off an odor.

As the Fire Departments' partner in protecting the community against the menace of fire, we are happy to devote this space to fire prevention messages from the Fire Chiefs in our service area.

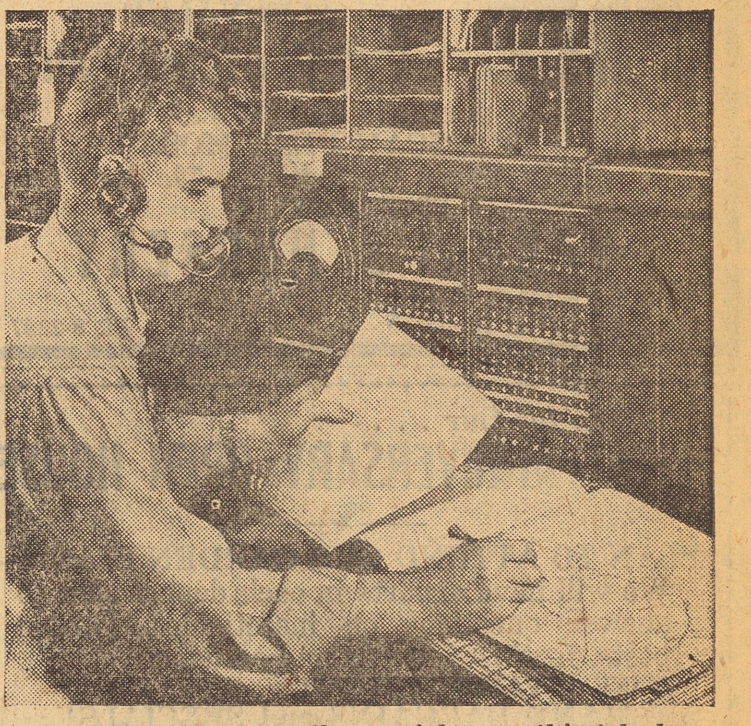
WHAT'S DOING

J. F. Imsand, your Telephone Manager in Campbell



I doubt if you've seen the special maps this telephone man is looking at. It's a sure bet you won't find them in your youngsters' school books. But maps like this are mighty important to us. They show the routes of telephone lines here in town—above the streets and underground, too. If our instruments see a sign of trouble, these maps help repair crews track it down in a hurry. We plan ahead this way so we can fix troubles before they affect your service.

* * * * *

Could be that you've noticed cans like these hanging from telephone cables. If so, you've probably wondered about them. Well, they're weights to keep cables from "dancing" in the wind. Know how your clothesline gets whipped around on windy days? If we let this happen to telephone lines, it might loosen the poles. So these weights keep the wind from playing tricks on us.

MOVING? WELL REMEMBER!

Your colored telephone can go with you anywhere in California served by the Pacific Company. When you apply for telephone service at your new address, your service representative will arrange to have the same colored phone installed in your new home or a different color if you prefer. If you have a colored phone now, you won't be charged again for color if you place your order within 30 days after the disconnection of your former service. Only the regular service connection charge applies. THE PACIFIC TELEPHONE COMPANY.

PLANNING ON PLANTING?

GARDENER'S CHECK LIST

By The California Association of Nurserymen

REMINDERS

1. This is a good time to plant ground covers on steep banks. The coming winter rains will help estabish them.

2. Spring flowering sweet peas can be planted now.

3. Clean out dead and dying annuals from your garden now.

4. Sow seeds of perennial bedding plants - most will bloom next year.

5. Renovate roses by lightly thinning and removing dead wood and spent flowers, by repairing basins and applying mulch. Keep watered.

Ground Cover

Ground cover provides the ideal solution to many tricky landscaping problems; probably the most notable being the sunny slope. Drying conditions on sloping ground prevent grass from flourishing; this difficulty is doubled when the slope basks in the sun all or most of the day.

The California Association of Nurserymen recommends four excellent ground covers to home owners who must cope with sunny slopes. The four are prostrate junipers, Ice Plant, trailing lantana and ivy. Each has individual recommendations.

For texture and year-round color interest, the low-growing junipers are unequalled. Junipers are evergreen and hardy throughout California and require little care.

One of the most popular spreading junipers is Tamarix Juniper, a delightful blue-green foliaged, slow-growing plant, while Waukegan Juniper is one of the most handsome and distinctive varieties. Its ordinarily soft, metallic-blue foliage turns an interesting purplish-blue in fall. Other spreading varieties to consider for sunny slopes are Shore Juniper, Sargent Juniper and San Jose Spreading Juniper.

Ice Plant (Mesembryanthemum) is widely used as a soil binder where cuts have been made in hillsides for roads. It has also proved useful in keeping coastal sand dunes under control. These two uses illustrate the Ice Plant's extreme hardiness and ability to get along on poor soil with no care. These practical qualities and this ground cover's great beauty make it one of the most popular in thestate. Ice Plant is a succulent with tiny daisy-like flowers in many colors; all colors, in fact, except blue. When in bloom, it provides a lovely deep rich carpet of color. This is, however, a no-traffic carpet, because it is rather deep for walking upon. Some varieties are improved by periodic cutting back.

Trailing lantana (lantana sellowiana) is a low, rapid growing ground cover with handsome greyish-green foliage and lovely fragrant lavender-pink flowers. This heat-loving plant is hardy to 24°, but is often used in areas which receive termperatures below that because it repairs frost damage easily. A yearly cutting back or thinning is required to keep trailing lantana from getting woody stems.

Various varieties of ivy have long been popular as ground covers. These small, rapid growers can be set approximately two feet apart. Some varieties prefer partial shade, but most will do quite well in full sun.

English ivy (hedera helix), which is available in many leaf forms and sizes, has proven especially useful as ground cover because of its speedy growth. Forms of English ivy with variegated markings in white and yellow can prove very useful when a light contrasting effect is desired.

The lovely dark-green Algerian Ivy (hedera canariensis) has been found to be especially suited to warm climates, such as in California's interior valleys. This species is also available in variegated form.

Ground covers have become increasingly popular in recent years because they require relatively little care. Most ground covers are deep-rooted plants requiring less water than the usual garden subject. This helps to explain their usefulness on the sunny slope landscape.

Lantana

Graceful lantana is among California's most popular free-blooming shrubs. Because of its vine-like habit, lantana has been equally successful as a ground cover, tied up as a vine or grown naturally as a low shrub. This versatility plus its beautiful flowers help account for its popularity.

Lantana is easy to care for, says the California Association of Nurserymen. After being planted in full sun, the lantana needs little watering and no fertilization. The blooms each year will be more plentiful if the shrub is cut back in Spring.

The rather dwarf and compact Lantana Camera may become either a 6 foot shrub or a vine as tall as 20 feet, depending upon the pruning it receives. There are named varieties in many colors: cerise-pink, pink, white, yellow and orange-red. These flowers grow in dense flat heads. The leaves are dark green.

Trailing lantana (Lantana sellowiana), a low-spreading plant with fragrant lavender-pink flowers in dense heads, is often used as ground cover in sunny locations. This rapid growers is probably the hardiest of the lantanas.

Goldrush Lantana (l. callowiana Goldrush) is a recent introduction with clusters of bright yellow flowers throughout the year. This can also be grown in prostrate form as a ground cover or in planters.

This new lantana has become quite popular, largely due to the pleasing contrast between the bright yellow of the flowers and the deep green of the foliage.

Lantanas are hardy to 24°, but are often planted in climates receiving temperatures below that becausue they repair frost damage easily.

Oleanders

Familiar sights along California's highway system, oleanders are recommended strongly by the California Association of Nrserymen as lovely garden attractions in all warm regions of the state. The more sunlight, including reflected sunlight, they receive, the more bounteous the crop of lovely blooms. They are excellent as background and screening shrubs.

There are two botanical species which are familiarly called "oleander"; the popular nerium oleander and the less known but very attractive Yellow Oleander (thevetia nereifolia). The round-headed Yellow Oleander thrives best in the coastal hot areas, while the nerium oleander proves highly successful in the hot interior valley as well as on the southern coast.

QUITO QUORNER

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hickcock, 1018 Tipton Ave., Willow Glen, welcomed a new daughter, April Lyn, on August 30 at Doctor's General Hospital. She tipped the scales at 6 lbs. 13 ounces. The proud grandparents are the Warren Lackeys of 13043 Quito Road.

Friday, September 6, was a big night at the Schriber home, 13295 Burwick Ave. Twenty-two young guests helped daughter Jan celebrate her twelfth birthday. Novelty hats were given each guest and ice cream, cake and punch served. The evening was spent bopping—natch.

—o—

The Forbe McCains of Martha Ave. decided against a trip to Grass Valley over labor day because they didn't want to become a traffic casualty. Instead the time was spent rejuvenating their patio.

—o—

Lea Mae, daughter of the Leon Dinglers was the recipient of a surprise birthday party at her home, 18963 Afton Ave., on September 8. She was eight years old. Ice cream and cake was served to 18 little guests.

The O. R. Hewitts, Jr., of Martha Ave. traveled to Vallejo September 22 to help celebrate the O. R. Hewitts, Sr.'s 48th wedding anniversary. A dinner was given them at Dino's in Napa by their daughter, Mrs. Lucille Webster of Reno, Nevada.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Hewitt, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Hewitt, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Flint Hard, and Mrs. Lucille Webster who was escorted by Master Paul Hewitt.

Banking Chapter Plans Day of Fun

A day of fun, sun and relaxation at Adobe Creek Lodge has been planned by women bankers of the Santa Clara County Chapter of the American Institute of Banking, according to Mrs. Ruth Bates of the Campbell office, American Trust Co.

The fun day will be held on Saturday, September 28, from noon to 5 p.m. Guests will be women representatives of the San Francisco, Oakland, Mt. Diablo and Peninsula chapters of the A.I.B.

Order of the day will be swimming, games, loafing and a luncheon to be prepared and served by the women's committee of the chapter under the direction of the chairman, Mrs. Bates. She will be assisted by Elene Perdichizzi of the Bank of America, reservations and games; and Margaret Davidson of the American Trust Company, luncheon arrangements.

This is the first such function planned by the committee and, if successful, will become an annual event.

The nerium oleander is a sturdy shrub which grows normally as a many-stemmed bush, one that can be pruned as a multiple-stemmed tree, similar to the multiple-trunked olive tree. The attractive foliage consists of long, feather-shaped, dark green leaves.

Nerium oleanders are available in many named varieties. Local nurseries each have their favorite named types in many colors, including, single or double whites, pink, salmon, yellow and red. The flowers bloom in attractive clusters amidst attractive foliage.

The nerium oleanders bloom profusely from May or June through October while the Yellow Oleander blooms from June to November. Thevetia has varieties with apricot flowers as well as the yellow from which the name derives.
